

SPRING 2025 NEWSLETTER

The beginning of 2025 finds Danse Lumiere presenting salon performances, featuring dancers Max Barker of ABT II and Johanna Sigurdardottir, cellist Evan Kahn, soprano Leslie Katter with David Barnett, clarinet and Kevin Korth, piano and highlighting women composers such as Kaija Saariaho and works by Jake Heggie, Gordon Getty, and Philip Glass. Kathryn Roszak also paid tribute at the event to poet/soprano Lisa Delan as a woman in the arts. The intimate salons brought audiences into contact with contemporary music and dance, and were held at the new Sausalito Center for the Arts and at the 2880 Broadway in San Francisco. In attendance were: Maria Manetti Shrem, Mauro Aprile Zanetti, Gordon Getty, Swissnex and the Japanese Consulate.

Daru Kawalkowski attended the event and said:

“ I just had to report back to you that the evening tonight was absolutely spectacular. Incredibly Intimate, encompassing and magical. I really am so happy it worked out that I could attend. Every aspect was just brilliant. ”

Danse Lumiere plans to continue these unique salons and offer subscriptions that also help support performances in the City that are free to the public. Danse Lumiere plans to continue our work with ABT II this April in New York City. We are also creating innovative programs, “The Lab,” to complement the salons, that feature AI and dance.

This is a time of limited resources for the arts. A small non-profit like ours counts on individual donors more than ever to support our cutting-edge work. Please be as generous as you can and know that you join with us in making important contributions of peace, visionary art, and culture to our world. In dark times let the light of DANSE LUMIÈRE illuminate.

Contributions of $50 and over are tax-deductible through our fiscal sponsor, Poetry Flash.

Please make your checks payable to "Poetry Flash/Danse Lumière" and send contributions to:
